

La Bourse Ou La Vie

The crowd opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers that Tom's hands are covered with jam. She asks him how he got the jam on his hands, and he tells her that he was out of the house. Aunt Polly is still angry from the last time Tom was out of the house, but she lets him go. Tom's half brother, Sid, tells her that Tom is a liar and that he should be punished.

Tom goes out of the house to play with his friends on the streets of St. Petersburg. He and the other boys spend their time playing pranks and having fun. They are all very mischievous and enjoy playing tricks on each other.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and wonders how he got them that way. She asks him what he was doing, and he tells her that he was out of the house. She is angry with him and tells him that he must work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.

La Bourse et la Vie has been on my list of must try Paris restaurants. This Daniel Rose restaurant has a reputation for serving classic French bistro dishes. Making reservations online is not necessarily a must but since this is a tiny restaurant it can't hurt. Since our reservation was for noon, we were allowed to select our seat.

La Bourse et la Vie is one of our favorite Classic Bistros in Paris. It's a place where you come to celebrate, to bring a date, and to devour one of the best steak-frites in Paris. This dining room near the Bourse (the former stock exchange) is compact and cozy, complete with all the markers of a ...

La Bourse et La Vie - Paris by Mouth

At La Bourse et La Vie, the Pot-au-feu comes out in a well-used copper pot and is lightened and brightened up with a flurry of fresh herbs, a clever touch that you won't find in a stodgy bistro. Because the dish came from humble beginnings, it usually includes a beef bone, served with a narrow spoon to dig out the jelly-like marrow.
