

La Caresse Du Vampire Nocturne

The sword opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his tricks.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly discovers that Tom's hands are covered with jam. She asks him how he got the jam on his hands, and he tells her that he was out of the house. She tells him that he is a bad boy and that he should be whipped. Tom tells her that he was out of the house and that he was looking for a place to hide. She tells him that he is a bad boy and that he should be whipped.

Tom goes out of the house looking for a place to hide. He goes to the woods and finds a place to hide. He goes to the woods and finds a place to hide. He goes to the woods and finds a place to hide. He goes to the woods and finds a place to hide. He goes to the woods and finds a place to hide.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his dirty clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom goes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
