

La Chanson Exactement Lart Difficile De Claude Franasois

The novel opens with Aunt Polly arriving for dinner in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his tricks.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him about his absence and what happened. He replies in a self-serving, but not entirely truthful, way. Tom's half brother, Huckleberry Finn, is also present and tries to help Tom.

Tom goes out of the house to play with his friends along the streets of St. Petersburg. He and the other boys play a game of hide-and-seek and eventually choose the graveyard as the way to win.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his stained clothes and wonders to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
